

WILLIMANTIC

Among the selectives who left Rockville for Fort Monmouth, Wednesday, were Elizabeth Hall, Landon, Stora, Peter Couture of Hampton, Henry Elliott Savage of Stora, William Joseph Courtney of Eastville, Robert Gustave Grandchamp of Willimantic, Kirby Safford of Willimantic, Amos Victor Bessant of Mansfield Hollow, Howard William Daniels of South Coventry.

The board of assessors is busy engaged at the town building receiving tax lists, and will be in session until the first of November.

Mrs. Robert H. Fenton, has tendered her resignation as the chairman of the Woman's division of the state council of defense, for Willimantic.

Mrs. Joseph W. Alsop of Avon, assistant to Federal Director Leo H. Korner, has met the field forces of the United States Employment Service and explained the aims and activities of the Women's Division, which in cooperation with the community labor boards will place a great number of women in necessary jobs in war work. The executive department of the new employment division will consist of Mrs. Alsop and Mrs. Margaret Corwin, secretary of the women's division of the Connecticut State Council of Defense, and Miss Dorothy Weil, will be the head of the field

SORE THROAT

Colds, Coughs, Croup and Catarrh. Relieved in Two Minutes.

Is your throat sore? Breathe Hymel. Have you catarrh? Breathe Hymel. Have you a cough? Breathe Hymel. Have you a cold? Breathe Hymel. Hymel is the one treatment for all sore throat and lung troubles. It does not contain any cocaine or morphine and all that is necessary to breathe it through the little pocket inhaler that comes with each outfit.

A complete list of retail dealers at drugists everywhere and at The Lee & Osgood Co., and Hymel is guaranteed in all cases. Catarrh, croup, colds, sore throat and bronchitis or more back. A Hymel inhaler has a lifetime and extra bottles of Hymel can be obtained from drugists.

Heating Stoves

Cool weather is here! How will you heat the house this winter? We can show you in great variety. We have the Glenwood, Quaker and Richmond makes in wood and coal burning stoves. Prices range from $3.50 to $35.00.

WOOD AND COAL HEATERS

We also show the ELECTRIC OIL HEATERS in three sizes.

Come in and let us show you.

THE J. C. Lincoln Co.

WILLIMANTIC, CONN.
Furniture 705-3
Undertaking 705-2

DANIEL F. THOMAS H. KILLOUREY BROS.
FURNITURE DIRECTORS AND EM. BALMERS
60 Union St., Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 295 (Lady Assistant)

DR. F. C. JACKSON
DENTIST
Removed to 715 Main St., Willimantic
Hours—9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Phone 44

JAY M. SHEPARD
Succumbing Kilmore & Shepard
Funeral Director & Embalmer
60-62 North St., Willimantic
Lady Assistant Tel. connection

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE

Willimantic, Conn.
Fall's Favorite Dress Fabrics

To obtain so good an assortment of wanted Woolen Weaves has been no simple task—to get more will be still more difficult.

In view of these facts we believe that you will appreciate the value of early selections while assortments are complete.

Attractive Plaids and a goodly variety of Plain Shades hold splendid possibilities for those who wish to economize by making their own garments or by having them made under their own direction.

WOOLEN FABRICS FALL SILKS
Prices range from 75c and New Fall Silks are priced up to $2.25 a yard. at $1.10 up to $2 a yard.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

force. The superintendents of each employment bureau have been urged to recommend some women members of their office force to represent the women's department in each U. S. Employment Service office.

A representative of the state council of defense was in town Thursday, making a survey of the recreational and educational agencies for men and women workers. In accordance with plans formulated in July Connecticut is to be divided into districts, and field secretaries placed in charge of each to stimulate social life during the period of the war. Willimantic will belong to the Northeastern division, which will also embrace Putnam, Rockville, Manchester, South Manchester and Norwich.

The Red Cross executive board, which will elect the officers for the ensuing year, is E. P. Chebro, William J. Sweeney, G. O. Carter, John C. Tracy, Arthur D. Carpenter, Pierre Larriere, Mrs. Harriet Panton, and the chairman of the committees are: Chairman of the production committee is Mrs. D. Everett Taylor; chapter development committee, Mrs. C. O. Keating; nursing information, Miss Alice Alford; home service section, Mrs. John Reilly; Junior department, Mrs. Howard; supply department, Mrs. William A. Arnold; Mrs. Louis Mason; finance department, Arthur I. Bill; publicity, Mrs. Frank P. Panton; speakers, Mrs. A. L. Litchfield.

Dr. E. M. Bower of Fort Wayne, Ind., who has been the physician in charge of the emergency hospital, has been recalled and will leave Willimantic for some other locality where the epidemic situation is more serious. The emergency hospital is now in charge of Mrs. W. S. Keating, head nurse. Only 13 patients are left at the hospital, and several patients are being discharged daily.

The Cadillacs, No. 6682, owned by Charles W. Smith of New London, sidetracked a telegraph pole on Windham road near Quonocuss, Wednesday night. This necessitated the occupants of the car were injured. The car was damaged to such an extent that it had to be towed to Norwich on Thursday.

Bradford W. Danielson, chairman of the local selective service board, is ill with influenza at his home in Moosup, P. D. Chebro and A. C. Scripps were appointed delegates to the Red Cross to a meeting called for Friday night at the chamber of commerce to discuss the War Chest.

Mrs. Angeline Jones, 58, died at her home, 37 Walnut street, Wednesday. Mrs. Jones was the proprietor of the Merrill House on Walnut street. She is survived by a son, Merrill H. Jones, of this city.

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Lyon Woodward were held from her home, 280 Lewiston avenue, Thursday afternoon. Rev. C. Harley Smith officiated. The burials were George Curley, Frank P. Broadway, P. A. Potter and Edwin P. Cross. The services were private. Burial was in the Willimantic cemetery.

The special committee on evening schools, Hornsfield Dion, Mrs. Katherine J. Spaulding and Mr. Tanton met at the Natchaus school Thursday night to discuss the opening of the evening school. It was finally decided to open the school Monday evening, Nov. 5. The following teachers were engaged for the session: Mrs. Eleanor Ross, Miss Georgeanne Pitt and Miss Frances T. O'Neill.

By arrangement with the committee on public information at Washington, the local office of the U. S. Employment Service office, in common with other government offices, has been placed on the mailing list of the official reports of the Federal Farming Bureau, issued every week, prints all the important rulings, decisions, regulations, proclamations and the executive orders issued by General Farming. Any person desiring more information can save writing to Washington by consulting the files of the Official U. S. Bulletin at the employment office. They can learn what they want to know about the army and navy.

GRAVITINS are people who get weak and run down. You can gain fighting strength from FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE.

There were nine births: Joseph Payok, son of Petronella Zink and Albert Payok, Roland Francis Guillette, son of Albina Leclair and Louis Guillette; Joseph Grodzinski, son of Antonia Volack and Frank Grodzinski; Chester Edmund Green, son of Ida Brown and Lemuel Green; Melvina Edmund Lacroix, daughter of Belle Beccleston and Edward Lacroix; Julia Catalina, son of Clara Jinto and Dominick Catalina; Robert James McKenna, son of Eva Ritchie and Robert J. McKenna; Lillian Claire Lamothe, daughter of Anna Gollins and John B. Lamothe; Caslaw Kizina, son of Rosa Jagrawicusa and Boleshin Kizur.

Sessions at the Riverside grammar school will be held Saturday and the two weeks' suspension of school on account of the influenza is made up. This plan is considered wiser than lengthening the required number of weeks into July.

Horatio Reed is survived by a brother, Augustus Reed, of Jewett City.

Mrs. C. D. Babcock has been notified of the death of her nephew, Floyd L. Maine, of North Stonington. The young man died at Camp Sheridan, Ala.

Sergeant John E. Wyatt has been transferred to an officers' training camp at Camp Grant, Ill.

The funeral service for Mrs. Ida E. Smith was held at the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon. Rev. J. B. Aldrich officiated. Mrs. G. H. Thornton and Mrs. W. G. Jeffers sang. Burial was in the Jewett City cemetery. The bearers were W. R. Burdick and W. H. Browning of Jewett City; William Weaver of Franklin; and Henry Nye of South Coventry. There were beautiful flowers from the friends. Relatives were present from Franklin, South Coventry, Providence, Cranston and Norwich. Undertaker E. B. Gilbert was in charge of the arrangement.

ONLY POWERFUL MEDICINE WILL END RHEUMATISM

It matters not whether you have had agonizing pains from rheumatism for 20 years or distressing twinges for 20 weeks. Rheumatism is strong, enough and mighty and powerful enough to drive rheumatic poisons from your body and abolish all misery or money back.

The Lee & Osgood Co. and all drugists sell Rheuma on a no-cure no-pay basis. A large bottle is inexpensive, and after you take the small dose as directed, once a day for two days you should know that at last you have obtained a remedy that will conquer Rheumatism.

For over seven years throughout America Rheuma has been prescribed and has released thousands from agony, pain and despair.

the food administration, the war labor board, the war industries board, the railroad administration and other permanent and emergency departments of the government.

Government officials at Washington are laying special stress these days on the necessity of stopping the flood of thousands of questions which are now the subject of individual letters to the national capital, congesting the mails, burdening the railroads and taking the precious time of government clerks. The U. S. Bulletin serves the purpose of meeting and answering the average inquiry. Copies of the movement newspaper dating back to the first of October are on file at the local office and people of Willimantic and vicinity are offered free access to them during office hours.

Posters entitled "Read the Official Bulletin—Save Writing to Washington for War Information" have been received at the local office and have been posted by order of Director General J. B. Densmore of the U. S. Employment Service.

Willimantic Camp Ground
Superintendent Walter and Mr. Palmer are still at work on the trees. Three large trees on Haven avenue have been taken up by the roots, as the unsightly stumps would be directly in front of Camp Cates. The Anchorage and Pinehurst cottages. Mr. Sherman of Willimantic has a force of men cutting poles for telephone or telegraph lines.

The large barn belonging to the association is being reshingled on the west side.

Mrs. Ruben Ross and daughter, Mrs. Fred Bushnell, with Mrs. Ernest Ross, of Norwich, were recent guests of Mrs. Jane E. Read and Mrs. Mary Taylor at Gem cottage.

Mrs. Anna Seville, who has been the guest of her sister in Webster, Mass., returned to her cottage Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews and sons, Gordon and Earl, spent the week at the home of Mrs. Andrews on Haven avenue, returning Monday to their home in Providence.

Capt. Jason L. Randall of Groton spent Tuesday at his cottage on Haven avenue.

One more camp meeting friend died recently at her home in the city. Mrs. David Woodworth, wife of Frederick Woodworth, whose cottage is on Wesley circle. Although a young woman, she had engaged herself to friends and friends from Mansfield Center.

There were many visitors in the grove of the camp meeting. Those at the Windham house include Miss Jessie Ramsden, Mrs. James J. Rudy, Mrs. Helen Johnson, Miss Markley Beebe from the city, Ernest Dunham and Arthur Dunham from Mansfield Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Fote from Gilead visited Mrs. Fote's mother, Mrs. Julius Hills, on Mystic avenue Sunday. Mrs. Hills closed her cottage for the season and returned home with her daughter.

Rev. E. M. Anthony and son, with friends from Jewett City, visited their cottage on Wesley circle Friday.

Charles Gardiner with his mother and friends from New London visited the grove Sunday.

Mrs. Helen Ferguson closed her cottage on Haven avenue Thursday and returned to her home in Providence, with several school chums, spent the week end at the Cleveland cottage on Haven avenue.

There were nine births: Joseph Payok, son of Petronella Zink and Albert Payok, Roland Francis Guillette, son of Albina Leclair and Louis Guillette; Joseph Grodzinski, son of Antonia Volack and Frank Grodzinski; Chester Edmund Green, son of Ida Brown and Lemuel Green; Melvina Edmund Lacroix, daughter of Belle Beccleston and Edward Lacroix; Julia Catalina, son of Clara Jinto and Dominick Catalina; Robert James McKenna, son of Eva Ritchie and Robert J. McKenna; Lillian Claire Lamothe, daughter of Anna Gollins and John B. Lamothe; Caslaw Kizina, son of Rosa Jagrawicusa and Boleshin Kizur.

Sessions at the Riverside grammar school will be held Saturday and the two weeks' suspension of school on account of the influenza is made up. This plan is considered wiser than lengthening the required number of weeks into July.

Horatio Reed is survived by a brother, Augustus Reed, of Jewett City.

Mrs. C. D. Babcock has been notified of the death of her nephew, Floyd L. Maine, of North Stonington. The young man died at Camp Sheridan, Ala.

Sergeant John E. Wyatt has been transferred to an officers' training camp at Camp Grant, Ill.

The funeral service for Mrs. Ida E. Smith was held at the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon. Rev. J. B. Aldrich officiated. Mrs. G. H. Thornton and Mrs. W. G. Jeffers sang. Burial was in the Jewett City cemetery. The bearers were W. R. Burdick and W. H. Browning of Jewett City; William Weaver of Franklin; and Henry Nye of South Coventry. There were beautiful flowers from the friends. Relatives were present from Franklin, South Coventry, Providence, Cranston and Norwich. Undertaker E. B. Gilbert was in charge of the arrangement.

ONLY POWERFUL MEDICINE WILL END RHEUMATISM

It matters not whether you have had agonizing pains from rheumatism for 20 years or distressing twinges for 20 weeks. Rheumatism is strong, enough and mighty and powerful enough to drive rheumatic poisons from your body and abolish all misery or money back.

The Lee & Osgood Co. and all drugists sell Rheuma on a no-cure no-pay basis. A large bottle is inexpensive, and after you take the small dose as directed, once a day for two days you should know that at last you have obtained a remedy that will conquer Rheumatism.

For over seven years throughout America Rheuma has been prescribed and has released thousands from agony, pain and despair.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

arrangements.

Mrs. Smith was born in Baltic in 1854, the daughter of Harriet Reynolds and Isaac Brown. The larger part of her life has been spent in South Coventry, but for some time she has lived with her daughter in Griswold. She was a very active member of the Methodist church in South Coventry. She was one of the Social Center members, known as the Wintergreen, and the club sent her to the Rhode Island State Guard parade in Providence Saturday afternoon. She was a member of the Fourth company, Western, Captain Dutton, will participate.

State Division No. 2, the Warwick district, will send these eight men to Fort H. G. Wright, Fishers Island, under the select service law. Arthur J. Tourangeau, of East Greenwich; William M. Drake, Riverdale; Howard V. Matenborg, Stonington; Hugh J. O'Neill, Riverpoint; Hector Conant, Fred McMahon, Potowomut; Frank G. McManus, Arctic; and Henry R. Johnson, Chepianawet.

Dance Old Fellers' hall, Moosup, tonight. Goodyear orchestra—adv.

The Red Cross chapter appreciates recent loans of two sewing machines by Mrs. Clifford Langford and Mrs. G. Brewster and a wall clock by the LeClair store; also the services of Larry Olsen in repairing and inspecting the sewing machines used in the hospital garments workroom.

WESTERLY
Two jolly sailor lads, Robert Love and William Johnson, by name, on seventy-two hours liberty from the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and who say they were on their way to Boston, the home of Love, were arrested last Wednesday night, by Chief of Police Brown and Policeman Michael Curran. They are held for the theft of an automobile in New York city, and also for stealing an automobile tire in Westerly. While the performance was in progress, the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled. The two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

car in Pawtucket, was thrown from his seat when the car was considerably damaged by being struck by a trolley car. When assistance arrived it was found that Martineau left his car and was gone and an ambulance was called. He refused to get into the ambulance, and said: "I'm through with the hospital. It's a matter of time they made wooden legs so they won't come off every time a fellow gets into a little mix-up."

The Rhode Island State Guard will parade in Providence Saturday afternoon, with Lieutenant Colonel Charles H. Ledward second in command. The Fourth company, Western, Captain Dutton, will participate.

State Division No. 2, the Warwick district, will send these eight men to Fort H. G. Wright, Fishers Island, under the select service law. Arthur J. Tourangeau, of East Greenwich; William M. Drake, Riverdale; Howard V. Matenborg, Stonington; Hugh J. O'Neill, Riverpoint; Hector Conant, Fred McMahon, Potowomut; Frank G. McManus, Arctic; and Henry R. Johnson, Chepianawet.

Dance Old Fellers' hall, Moosup, tonight. Goodyear orchestra—adv.

The Red Cross chapter appreciates recent loans of two sewing machines by Mrs. Clifford Langford and Mrs. G. Brewster and a wall clock by the LeClair store; also the services of Larry Olsen in repairing and inspecting the sewing machines used in the hospital garments workroom.

WESTERLY
Two jolly sailor lads, Robert Love and William Johnson, by name, on seventy-two hours liberty from the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and who say they were on their way to Boston, the home of Love, were arrested last Wednesday night, by Chief of Police Brown and Policeman Michael Curran. They are held for the theft of an automobile in New York city, and also for stealing an automobile tire in Westerly. While the performance was in progress, the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown of Westerly, who lives in a residence in Main street, saw the sailors take the tire from the rack in the rear of the Brown machine. When he saw them, he called to them, and they fled.

Police Chief Brown was called by the officer and the circumstances explained. Chief Brown recalled the fact that he had seen the two sailors, who were in the rear of the automobile, were seen by William E. Brown